

NAME _____

DATE _____

ELPHANT

1. The elephant is the largest mammal of all land animals.	T
2. Elephants have the smallest brain of the animal kingdom.
3. An elephant's trunk has 40,000 different muscles.
4. Elephants have an excellent sense of sight.
5. The ears of the African elephant are large and fall to its shoulders.
6. All African elephants have tusks.
7. The skin of an African elephant is 2.5 cm thick.
8. Elephants can smell water from 5 km away.
9. The Asian elephant is larger than the African elephant.
10. Only African elephants have tusks.
11. Asian elephants have smaller, rounded ears.
12. Elephants can live between 30 and 40 years.
13. Asian elephants have 26 ribs.
14. Elephants use their ears to dissipate heat.
15. The skin of elephants is thin and delicate.
16. Asian elephants move their ears to scare away enemies.
17. The gestation period of elephants lasts 22 months.
18. Elephants have a reproductive cycle of 12 to 15 months.
19. Elephants are important seed dispersers.
20. Elephants need to drink up to 150 liters of water per day. -

NAME _____

DATE _____

21. Elephants use their tusks to defend themselves.
22. Elephants can identify up to 20 different voices.
23. Elephants have a very well-developed sense of smell.
24. Elephants do not have a developed sense of hearing.
25. African elephants have a longer lifespan than Asian elephants.
26. Male elephants stay with the herd all their lives.
27. Elephant feet end in hooves.
28. African elephants have 5 toenails on their hind legs.
29. An elephant's trunk ends in two lobes.
30. Elephants eat only tree leaves.

Draw and elephant

NAME _____

DATE _____

ELPHANT ANSWERS

1. The elephant is the largest mammal of all land animals.	T
2. Elephants have the smallest brain of the animal kingdom.	F
3. An elephant's trunk has 40,000 different muscles.	T
4. Elephants have an excellent sense of sight.	F
5. The ears of the African elephant are large and fall to its shoulders.	T
6. All African elephants have tusks.	T
7. The skin of an African elephant is 2.5 cm thick.	T
8. Elephants can smell water from 5 km away.	T
9. The Asian elephant is larger than the African elephant.	F
10. Only African elephants have tusks.	F
11. Asian elephants have smaller, rounded ears.	T
12. Elephants can live between 30 and 40 years.	F
13. Asian elephants have 26 ribs.	T
14. Elephants use their ears to dissipate heat.	T
15. The skin of elephants is thin and delicate.	F
16. Asian elephants move their ears to scare away enemies.	F
17. The gestation period of elephants lasts 22 months.	T
18. Elephants have a reproductive cycle of 12 to 15 months.	F
19. Elephants are important seed dispersers.	T
20. Elephants need to drink up to 150 liters of water per day. -	T

NAME _____

DATE _____

21. Elephants use their tusks to defend themselves.	T
22. Elephants can identify up to 20 different voices.	T
23. Elephants have a very well-developed sense of smell.	T
24. Elephants do not have a developed sense of hearing.	F
25. African elephants have a longer lifespan than Asian elephants.	F
26. Male elephants stay with the herd all their lives.	F
27. Elephant feet end in hooves.	F
28. African elephants have 5 toenails on their hind legs.	T
29. An elephant's trunk ends in two lobes.	T
30. Elephants eat only tree leaves.	F

Draw and elephant

