

NAME _____

DATE _____

OWL

Answer True or False:

1. The owl belongs to the family of Strigidae.	T
2. The owl is a diurnal bird.
3. The owl has very strong talons.
4. There are 50 species of owls.
5. The color of its plumage depends on where they live.
6. The owl can turn its head 180 degrees.
7. The owl's plumage helps it camouflage during the day.
8. The owl has five different types of feathers.
9. Females are larger than males.
10. The owl can be as small as a sparrow.
11. The owl has very sharp talons.
12. The owl uses its feathers to swim.
13. The owl's hearing is developed to locate prey in the dark.
14. The owl has night vision.
15. The owl can fly without making noise.
16. The owl is a nocturnal hunter.
17. The owl primarily feeds on insects.
18. The owl can find prey using only its hearing.
19. The owl cannot be found in Europe.
20. The owl is affected by human intervention in its habitat.

NAME _____

DATE _____

21. The owl has large round eyes
22. The owl can live in urban areas.
23. The owl does not feed on other birds.
24. The owl uses its talons to catch prey.
25. The owl can turn its head 270 degrees.
26. The owl hunts during both day and night.
27. The owl has a distinctive call that can be heard over long distances.
28. The owl cannot camouflage in its environment.
29. The owl is known for its silent flight.
30. The owl is a scavenger bird.

Draw an owl

NAME _____

DATE _____

OWL ANSWERS

1. The owl belongs to the family of Strigidae.	T
2. The owl is a diurnal bird.	F
3. The owl has very strong talons.	T
4. There are 50 species of owls.	F
5. The color of its plumage depends on where they live.	T
6. The owl can turn its head 180 degrees.	F
7. The owl's plumage helps it camouflage during the day.	T
8. The owl has five different types of feathers.	V
9. Females are larger than males.	T
10. The owl can be as small as a sparrow.	F
11. The owl has very sharp talons.	T
12. The owl uses its feathers to swim.	F
13. The owl's hearing is developed to locate prey in the dark.	T
14. The owl has night vision.	T
15. The owl can fly without making noise.	T
16. The owl is a nocturnal hunter.	T
17. The owl primarily feeds on insects.	F
18. The owl can find prey using only its hearing.	T
19. The owl cannot be found in Europe.	F
20. The owl is affected by human intervention in its habitat.	T

NAME _____

DATE _____

21. The owl has large round eyes	T
22. The owl can live in urban areas.	T
23. The owl does not feed on other birds.	F
24. The owl uses its talons to catch prey.	T
25. The owl can turn its head 270 degrees.	T
26. The owl hunts during both day and night.	F
27. The owl has a distinctive call that can be heard over long distances.	T
28. The owl cannot camouflage in its environment.	F
29. The owl is known for its silent flight.	T
30. The owl is a scavenger bird.	F

Draw an owl

