

NAME _____

DATE _____

TIGER

Answer True or False:

1. The tiger is the largest feline in the world.	T
2. Tigers are native to the continental part of Asia.
3. The stripes of a tiger are the same on all individuals.
4. The stripes of tigers are similar to human fingerprints.
5. A tiger can grow up to 3 meters long.
6. A tiger can weigh up to 300 kg.
7. Tigers can live up to 20 years.
8. A tiger's tail can measure up to 2 meters.
9. Tigers have four toes on their hind paws and five on their front paws.
10. Tigers usually live in large family groups.
11. The Bengal tiger is the national animal of India.
12. Tigers hunt both day and night.
13. Tigers have binocular vision.
14. A tiger's canines can measure up to 7.5 cm.
15. Tigers use their sense of smell to track their prey.
16. Tigers can jump up to 6 meters in distance.
17. Tigers are social animals that hunt in groups.
18. Tigers have a stronger bite than any other feline.
19. The natural habitat of tigers includes densely wooded areas and swamps.
20. Sumatran tigers are larger than Siberian tigers.

NAME _____

DATE _____

21. Tigers can kill their prey with a single blow of their powerful paws.
22. Tigers are herbivores and their diet includes large amounts of vegetation.
23. Tigers can jump up to 10 meters in distance.
24. Tigers mark their territory with olfactory and visual signals.
25. Tigers can reach a top speed of 100 km/h.
26. The tiger is easily distinguished by the black stripes that surround its body.
27. Tigers have shorter hind legs than front legs.
28. Tigers use their roar to communicate with other tigers over long distances.
29. Most tigers now live in captivity.
30. The Bengal tiger is the most numerous subspecies of tiger.

Draw a tiger

NAME _____

DATE _____

TIGER ANSWERS

1. The tiger is the largest feline in the world.	T
2. Tigers are native to the continental part of Asia.	T
3. The stripes of a tiger are the same on all individuals.	F
4. The stripes of tigers are similar to human fingerprints.	T
5. A tiger can grow up to 3 meters long.	T
6. A tiger can weigh up to 300 kg.	T
7. Tigers can live up to 20 years.	T
8. A tiger's tail can measure up to 2 meters.	F
9. Tigers have four toes on their hind paws and five on their front paws.	T
10. Tigers usually live in large family groups.	F
11. The Bengal tiger is the national animal of India.	T
12. Tigers hunt both day and night.	T
13. Tigers have binocular vision.	T
14. A tiger's canines can measure up to 7.5 cm.	T
15. Tigers use their sense of smell to track their prey.	T
16. Tigers can jump up to 6 meters in distance.	T
17. Tigers are social animals that hunt in groups.	F
18. Tigers have a stronger bite than any other feline.	T
19. The natural habitat of tigers includes densely wooded areas and swamps.	T
20. Sumatran tigers are larger than Siberian tigers.	F

NAME _____

DATE _____

21. Tigers can kill their prey with a single blow of their powerful paws.	T
22. Tigers are herbivores and their diet includes large amounts of vegetation.	F
23. Tigers can jump up to 10 meters in distance.	F
24. Tigers mark their territory with olfactory and visual signals.	T
25. Tigers can reach a top speed of 100 km/h.	F
26. The tiger is easily distinguished by the black stripes that surround its body.	T
27. Tigers have shorter hind legs than front legs.	F
28. Tigers use their roar to communicate with other tigers over long distances.	T
29. Most tigers now live in captivity.	T
30. The Bengal tiger is the most numerous subspecies of tiger.	T

Draw a tiger

